Camper Code of Conduct

Hey Campers, we're so excited to have you come join us at Camp! We do have some rules that you have to follow, like:

- No teaching things that the Bible doesn't agree with. We are a Christian Camp and realize that people might hold other beliefs, but we ask that you respect ours and don't try to teach or encourage other things that go against our beliefs.
- No engaging in or promoting any kind of sexual activities. We believe in keeping ourselves as pure as possible. God designed sex for marriages, and we want to keep it that way. Actions like viewing pornography, exposing yourself, smooching on the bleachers, or touching somebody else's private parts are going to get you into trouble.
- No drugs or alcohol. NONE!
- No fighting, either verbally or physically. This includes choking, throwing, punching, biting, kicking, scratching, slapping, smacking, spitting, or anything else that's going to harm somebody or cause them to feel unsafe.
- No swearing or blasphemy. We want to keep our language to a "PG" level.
- No bullying or harassment. Don't tease anybody based on the color of their skin, their gender, their looks, how they talk or walk, what they wear, or for any other reason. We want to encourage others and help them to grow.
- Life is precious; it's the greatest gift that we can experience. Let's respect it in the way we talk and act and avoid supporting viewpoints and activities that go against this.
- No illegal activities. If it's against the law, it's definitely not allowed at Camp

The Camp Director reserves the right to dismiss a camper who, in their opinion, is a hazard to the safety and rights of others, or who appears to have rejected the reasonable controls of the Camp. If this occurs, the fee is non-refundable, and parents/guardians are responsible to ensure that any child dismissed from the Camp is picked up in a timely manner.
